April

No one knows for certain how April got its name, but it may have come from the Latin word 'aperire' which means 'to open'. April is, after all, the month when in the northern hemisphere buds begin to open and things start to grow again after winter.

April Fools Day

April beings with a day of fun and jokes—April Fools Day. No one really knows when this custom began either, but it has been kept for hundreds of years.

The First of April, some do say Is set apart for All Fools Day; But why the people call it so, Not I, nor they themselves do know.

The Swallow

The swallow makes its reappearance during April. Earlier people were mystified by the disappearance of many birds during winter and at one time thought that the swallow spent the cold months hidden in the mud at the bottom of ponds. Traditionally, April 15th is

'Swallow Day' in England (that's the one across the pond, not here in Arkansas), the date on which returning swallows were seen again.

Former North Little Rock Mayor Patrick Henry Hays was honored for his 50 years of service to DeMolay International on March 16, 2013. DeMolay International is a leadership development organization for young men between the ages of 12 and 21 years.

President Bill Clinton, Walt Disney, John Wayne and many other fine men were members of Demolay International. Article found in The Times—March 28, 2013.

Weather-lore, beliefs and sayings April showers bring May flowers.

If early April is foggy Rain in June Will make lanes boggy.

When April blows its horn 'Tis good for hay and corn.

Till April's dead, change not a thread.

Traditions and Festivals

Easter usually comes in the month of April. It is what is called a 'moveable feast' because the date of it is fixed according to the moon. Easter Sunday has to be the first Sunday after the full moon which means that Easter can fall as early as 22 March or as late as 25 April.

Daffodil Sunday.

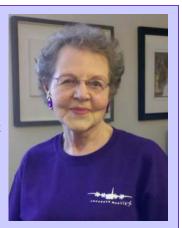

The first Sunday in April, when in Victorian times, families picked daffodils from their gardens and took them to local hospitals to give to the sick.

Fire Department

A Smoldering Threat

Found in the Arkansas Democrat Gazette—March 2, 2013
According to the American Red Cross, Arkansas ranks in the top five nationally for residential fires.
Here are a few fire safety tips:

When building a fire in a fire place, use a screen to make sure the embers do not pop out. Embers can smolder overnight in carpet or upholstery and cause a fire.

Have the chimney and flue inspected yearly to be sure both are functioning properly. If either gets off-kilter, it can result in a fire.

Buy homeowners' or renters' insurance. No one wants to see all their valuables go up in flames. This is particularly important in apartments and homes in subdivisions with small lots since fires can spread from unit to unit, home to home, very quickly.

Have your heating and cooling unit serviced each year to prevent malfunctions.

Don't put anything other than pots and pans on top of the stove. Towels, paper plates and other household items can go up in flames quickly.

Make sure the wiring in any home or apartment is up to code before agreeing to buy or rent. Often faulty wiring is to blame for residential fires.

If the power goes out, do

Keep matches and all other flammable materials away from children.

Get rid of old newspapers or rags that might create a fire hazard.

Keep the lint trap on the cloths dryer cleaned out. A clogged lint filter has cause more than a few fires.

Do not leave a space heater unattended for any length of time, and be sure nothing is within 3 feet of a heater. The same is true of wood stoves and fires in fireplaces.

Smoke detectors should be centrally located on each level of a home. For one-story ranch-style homes, place a smoke detector at each end of the structure to detect smoke. (A smoke detector that also has a C02 monitor is ideal).

Test all smoke alarms regularly to make sure they still work.

Create an evacuation plan for your family in case of a fire. Pick a spot in your neighborhood to meet, and teach kids what to do if they smell smoke or see a fire.

North Little Rock Police Warn of Phishing Scam

Currently, Central Arkansas is experiencing a phishing scam in which the suspects are contacting victims with Robo-calls and text messages. The suspects are advising victims their debit or credit cards have been canceled by mistake or some version of this. The area banks are aware of this scam and are attempting to notify their customers.

Sergeant Brian Dedrick, Public Information Officer, North Little Rock Police Department, said people need to be aware this is a dialing scam going on in this market with several financial institutions where an automated telephone service is calling people at random with the following message "your debit card has been deactivated. To reactivate, press 1...

Dedrick said, "Please remember that Financial Institutions will never call customers and ask for debit card information. If you receive a call from a customer, please let them know they should not give out their debit card number or any financial information. This automated call is originating our of Florida."

Anyone having concerns should contact the police department at 501-758-1234.

Her application said, "the most enthusiastic person that I have ever known and she translates that enthusiastic person that I have ever known and she translates that enthusiasm into everything she does, both as a teacher and in her personal life...as the Chairman of the PTAS Reflections Committee for countless years, she encouarges the student body to tap into their abilities of creative expression." Mandy has taught for North Little Rock for 23 years.

Consider your co-workers—

Administrative Professional Update January 2013 We all like to think ourselves as being polite and considerate at work-it's everybody else who needs an etiquette refresher, right?!

Test your knowledge to make sure you're really minding your manners by giving the best answer to each of the following questions:

- 1. When it comes to decorating the wall of your cubicle or office:
- A) Anything goes...after all it's your personal space.
- B) Decorating your space reflect on you as much as your clothing. Make it low-key and professional.
- 2. If you get a personal call on your cell phone while at your desk:
- A) Lower your voice when you take the call.
- B) Leave your desk and take the call in a conference room or outside.

Your co-worker at the desk next to you is extremely noisy—loud ring tone on cell phone, always chatting, etc. You should: A) Tell him or her politely it's difficult to get work done. Could he or she be more quiet?

Get yourself a good set of earphones and find a music station.

Before you get the answers, keep in mind the City of North Little Rock has an Employee Handbook and those rules and guidelines should be followed or talk to your supervisor.

Answers:

1: b Decorations are as important as your clothes, communication skills and job performance 2: b NLR Employee Handbook—use of a personal cell phone is prohibited except during breaks. 3: a. It's always best to be direct, if it's bothering you, it's bothering someone else, too.

Using your email to send text messages

Do you ever send text messages using email? If your boss prefers texts over email when on the move, you don't have to fumble with the small keyboard on your cell phone.

All you need to do is open your email, type the person's 10-digit phone number into the "Send To" field using the proper email format and compose a short message of around 160 characters, just like a test.

Here is the email format you should use when sending texts via email with several popular cell phone carriers:

- AT&T: number@txt.att.net
- T-Mobile: number @tmomail.net
- Verizon: number@vtext.com
- Sprint: number@messaging.sprintpcs.com or number@pm.sprint.com

Fluffy Cheese and Greens Frittata

—found in Weight Watchers Magazine September/October 2012

Prep 10 MIN COOK/BAKE 35 MIN SERVES 4

Preheat oven to 350°. Heat 2 tsp olive oil in large nonstick skillet over medium heat. Add 1 chopped small onion and 1 thinly sliced small carrot; cook, stirring, until vegetables begin to brown, 5 minutes. Add 1/4 c water and cook until vegetables are tender and liquid evaporates, 3 minutes. Add 1 (10-oz) pkg thawed and squeezed-dry frozen chopped spinach and cook, stirring until spinach is hot, 5 minutes. Remove pan from heat. Meanwhile, whisk 3 large eggs, 1/2 c part-skim ricotta, 3 Tbsp grated Parmesan, 1/2 tsp salt and 1/4 tsp black pepper in large bowl. With electric mixer on medium speed, (in another large bowl) beat 4 large egg whites until stiff but not dry, peaks form. With rubber spatula, gently fold beaten whites into egg mixture, just until blended. Gently fold egg mixture into vegetables in skillet just until blended. Bake until center of frittata is set. 20 minutes. Cool 5 minutes. Cut into 4 wedges.

Add 1 tsp minced jalapeno pepper to onion and carrot. Serve topped with 2 diced plum tomatoes and 1 Tbsp chopped cilantro.

Corn and Kale—prepare previous recipe as directed. Add 1/2 c fresh corn kernels to onion and carrot and substitute 1 10-oz pkg thawed and squeezed-dry frozen chopped kale for spinach.

Roasted Pepper—prepare previous recipe as directed. Add 1/2 c sliced roasted red and yellow bell peppers (not packed in oil) to the spinach.

Eating at your desk...

"I know I shouldn't eat at my desk. But with back-to-back deadlines, I rarely have a choice."

According to Weight Watchers Magazine, you always have a choice. Scarfing down a bowl of chili while creating a PowerPoint presentation is a multi-tasking talent not worth bragging about. Research suggests that being distracted during meals may lead you to over eat and over indulge later. Plus, dining at your desk is downright icky: The average desk harbors 400 times more bacteria than a toilet seat, according to a study at the University of Arizona.

Think of yourself as a cell phone that needs recharging—even on your busiest days, walk away from your desk, and grab ten minutes in the break room (or somewhere else) to focus on your food and refresh.
