1. Pricing should include shipping and delivery charges.

2. Question:

I did have one more question on Section D. Item # D5 – Magnetic Patch – this seems like a pretty specific item based on the specs so I was wondering if you had a model number or manufacturer for this that I could reference? This is the only item in Section D I've been unable to source up to this point.

Answer:

We don't have a specific model number or specific manufacturer. As a point of reference, a manufacturing company called Ultra-tech makes a magnetic patch, if you want to see a picture of one.
