Christmas Message from the Commanding Officer

You do not have to be a religious zealot to enjoy Christmas and understand the meaning of it. Whatever your beliefs, whatever your background, Christmas is the time of year when men of goodwill express their hope for peace on earth.

As you sit down to partake of the traditional feast, let me remind you that all the world knows of your sacrifice to ensure continued peace on earth. I extend my personal wishes for many a Merry Christmas to you and yours.

C. G. Schoenherr
