

Museum Submarines

Across

5. Museum submarine most easily visited by a Pirate's fan (or a Steeler's fan or a Penguin's fan)
6. Cold War submarine on display at shipyard where RAZORBACK was built
9. Submarine on display with a "Great White Fleet" vessel (USS OLYMPIA)
11. Museum submarine in Fall River, MA
12. Museum submarine farthest from any ocean
13. Museum submarine in Hackensack, NJ
14. The only missile-carrying submarine on public display in the world

Down

1. Only lake to be home to three museum submarines
2. The Russian submarine on display alongside the QUEEN MARY
3. Michigan's museum submarine
4. Museum submarine in Wisconsin
7. Only GUPPY III submarine on public display
8. Other than CAVALLA, the only other submarine on the Gulf Coast
10. Northern-most museum submarine
16. RAZORBACK's Closest Neighbor

Across

15. Besides RAZORBACK, the only other museum submarine to be at Tokyo Bay on September 2nd, 1945
17. Only museum submarine in Arkansas
20. Western-most museum submarine
21. The Russian submarine on display with USS DOLPHIN (AGSS-555)
22. Home to only German museum submarine
23. The only nuclear-powered submarine on public display in the world
24. Submarine on display with USS LITTLE ROCK in Buffalo, NY
26. The only city on the East Coast to be home to two museum submarines
27. Oldest submersible in a museum (and the first to sink a warship)
28. The only class of Russian submarine on display in the United States
29. The only WWII submarine on display on the West Coast

Down

18. State that is home to the most museum submarines (Hint - Four)
19. The only city on the West Coast to be home to two museum submarines
25. Sank the last Japanese warships sunk during World War II
27. Besides RAZORBACK, the only other submarine without modifications for visitor access