Commission Chairman Suzanne Jackson called the October 11, 2022 meeting of the North Little Rock History Commission meeting to order at 5:30 P.M. and quorum was established. .

Ms. Jackson asked Commissioners if they had read the minutes of the September 13, 2022 History Commission meeting. Ann Clements moved to approve the September 2022 minutes as written and the motion was seconded by Deeana Montgomery and approved by all in voice vote.

Chairman Suzanne Jackson reported that the September 21 Art Walk received good reviews. Ms. Jackson said that Debra Wood and Kristal Clark will volunteer for the next Art Walk, October 21. She told Commissioners that a preliminary design of the downstairs exhibit is nearing completion. The building will likely be closed in November or December to begin construction.

Commissioners discussed remaining open after hours for “Northern Lights” on the plaza, November 19 and it was decided to not be open.

After it was determined there was no further business to conduct, Ann Clements moved to adjourn. Belinda Burney seconded the motion and all approved in voice vote.

After adjournment, all went upstairs at 506 Main to tour the archives. Kelli Peters showed Commissioners the different areas of the archives and some of the materials stored there.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra Taylor Smith, Director
